HYMN

PRELUDE

Beneath the Cross of Jesus

Tustin Presbyterian Quartet

Beneath the cross of Jesus I fain would take my stand, the shadow of a mighty rock within a weary land; A home within the wilderness, A rest upon the way, From the burning of the noontide heat, and the burden of the day.

Upon that cross of Jesus mine eye at times can see The very dying form of One, who suffered there for me; And from my smitten heart, with tears, two wonders I confess, The wonders of redeeming love, and my own worthlessness.

I take, O cross, thy shadow for my abiding place; I ask no other sunshine than the sunshine of His face; Content to let the world go by, to know no gain nor loss, My sinful self my only shame, my glory all the cross.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lynn Stone, Yorba Linda Presbyterian Church

Holy God, we admit that we struggle with this day. We struggle with Good Friday for three reasons. First, no one likes to see another suffer. On this day we are face to face with the cross, and your suffering is hard for us to bear.

Second, the pain of this day reminds us of the pain of past and present days, and our own pain is hard for us to bear.

Third, we are reminded of the suffering we cast onto others, which means we have to confront the pain we have caused you.

So forgive us for skirting around the edges of this day. Forgive us for averting our eyes and avoiding the sinking feeling in our chests. Forgive us for distracting ourselves from the hurt, and forgive us for the ways we add to the suffering of this world.

We do not like to be here—at the foot of the cross, and yet, here is where we are.

So forgive us, and then use us for your good.

Gratefully we pray. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON In my best and worst moments, I am a Child of God. Nothing can separate me from that truth, not even death. Thanks be to God. Amen.
